

Gannett Board elects new director

October 28, 2013

MCLEAN, Va., Oct. 28, 2013 /PRNewswire/ -- Tony A. Prophet, senior vice president of Operations, Printing and Personal Systems at Hewlett-Packard Company, has been elected to the Board of Directors of Gannett Co., Inc. (NYSE: GCI), effective October 29, 2013, the company announced.

"It is a pleasure to welcome Tony to the Board of Directors. He has an outstanding record of leadership and we look forward to working with him to help advance the company's growth strategies and value to shareholders. He brings a valuable perspective and deep knowledge that will have a positive impact on the company," said Gannett Chairman Marge Wagner.

Gracia Martore, Gannett's president and chief executive officer, said, "Tony has strong operational experience that will help enhance our efforts as we continue to leverage our growth opportunities and deliver best-in-class content and services across broadcast, digital, print and mobile platforms."

Prophet has been with Hewlett-Packard since 2006, initially as senior vice president of Supply Chain Operations, Personal Systems Group, until 2012 when he was named to his current role. Prior to joining Hewlett-Packard, he served in a variety of roles at United Technologies Corporation, Honeywell International, Inc., Booz Allen Hamilton, Inc., and General Motors Company.

With Prophet's election, Gannett has 10 directors.
