

Gannett, KING Express Deepest Sympathies to the Victims of Today's News Helicopter Crash in Seattle

March 18, 2014

McLEAN, Va., March 18, 2014 /PRNewswire/ -- Gannett Co., Inc. (NYSE: GCI) and its Seattle station, KING, are deeply saddened by today's helicopter accident in Seattle, WA.

"Words cannot express the sympathy and sadness we feel for the victims who lost their lives in today's tragedy and for their families," said Ray Heacox, president and general manager, KING. "We grieve this afternoon with the entire Seattle community and our thoughts are with all those affected."

KING shares with KOMO the cost of the helicopter and video service provided by an independent helicopter operator, Helicopter, Inc.

About Gannett

Gannett Co., Inc. (NYSE: GCI) is an international media and marketing solutions company that informs and engages more than 100 million people every month through its powerful network of broadcast, digital, mobile and publishing properties. Our portfolio of trusted brands offers marketers unmatched local-to-national reach and customizable, innovative marketing solutions across any platform. Gannett is committed to connecting people – and the companies who want to reach them – with their interests and communities. For more information, visit www.gannett.com.

The logo for GANNETT, consisting of the word "GANNETT" in a large, blue, sans-serif font.

Logo - <http://photos.prnewswire.com/prnh/20120103/PH28972LOGO>

SOURCE Gannett Co., Inc.

For media inquiries, contact: Jeremy Gaines, Vice President, Corporate Communications, 703-854-6049, jmgaines@gannett.com or For investor inquiries, contact: Jeffrey Heinz, Vice President, Investor Relations, 703-854-6917, jheinz@gannett.com