Every TEGNA employee is responsible for ensuring that the Company's actions and associations maintain the highest ethical standards. These standards guarantee the independence and integrity of our news, editorial, information, advertising, and marketing services, and ensure TEGNA fully complies with all pertinent laws and regulations. As an employee, you are obliged to report any suspected violation of Company policy (including any violation of accounting, ethics, or auditing policy), unethical practice, or any suspected violation of the laws governing the Company's business, including antitrust laws and regulations.
